Contributions to People for Carl Andrews are not tax deductible. We may accept contributions from an individual totaling up to $2,100 per authorized contributor. Federal law prohibits contributions to the campaign from corporations, labor union treasury funds and national banks; from any person contributing another person's funds, and from foreign nationals who lack permanent resident status; and federal government contractors. To comply with federal law we must use our best efforts to obtain, maintain and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for contributions of $200 or more per election cycle.
